

Simpel Techlabs Private Limited

IVF Vyapaari application User Manual

Introduction:

Simpel Techlabs Private Limited is pleased to present this comprehensive User Manual for IVF Vyapaari is a versatile web page offering a seamless platform for buying and selling products. In addition to facilitating commerce, it integrates government schemes and business events, empowering users with valuable resources and networking opportunities. With the ability for users to add and manage their product listings, along with accessing detailed product information, IVF Vyapaari fosters a vibrant marketplace conducive to business growth and community engagement. IVF Vyapaari Application is a versatile tool designed to streamline your workflow. With intuitive features and a user-friendly interface, it helps you manage tasks efficiently.

User Interface Overview:

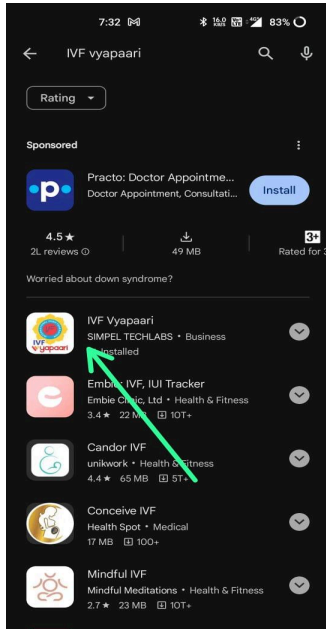

The main interface consists of three panels: the navigation panel on the left, the workspace in the center, and the toolbar at the top. Each panel serves a specific purpose, allowing you to navigate, view, and edit your tasks seamlessly.

Getting Started:

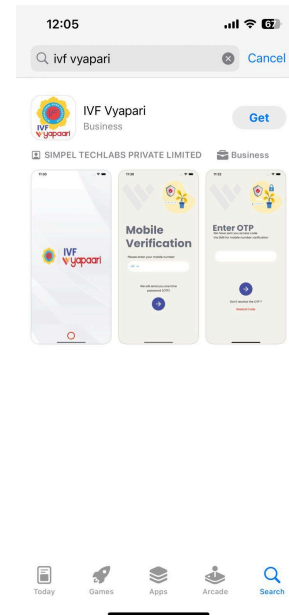

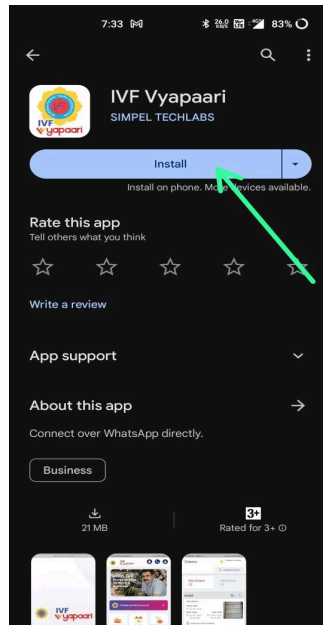

To begin using the IVF Vyapaari Application, simply download and install it from our PlayStore & Apple Store. It's compatible with Android and Apple devices operating systems.

For New User:-

Step 1- Go to the Play Store/App store and search for IVF Vyapaari. Click on the app and click on Install.

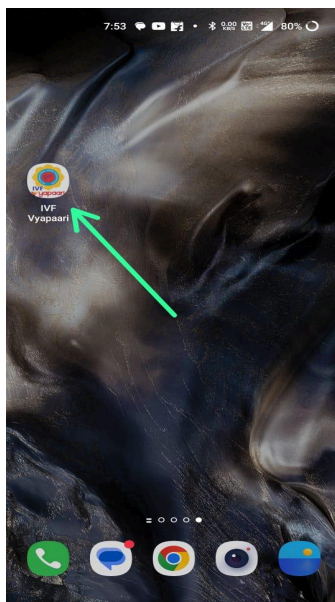

For Android Users

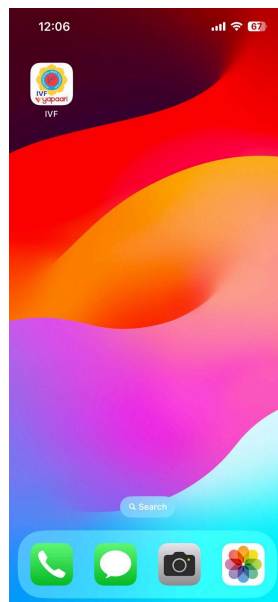

For IOS User

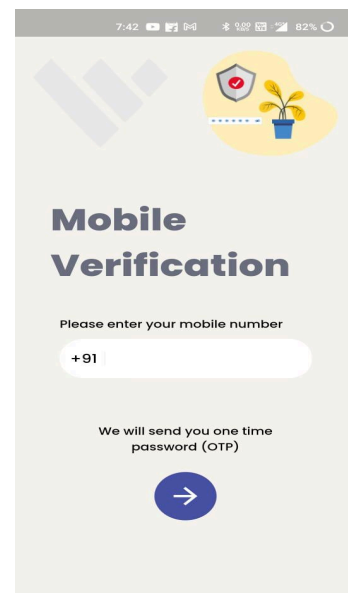

Step 2 - Click on the installed app. The mobile verification page will be open.

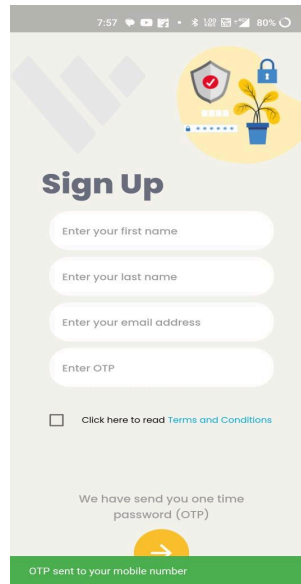

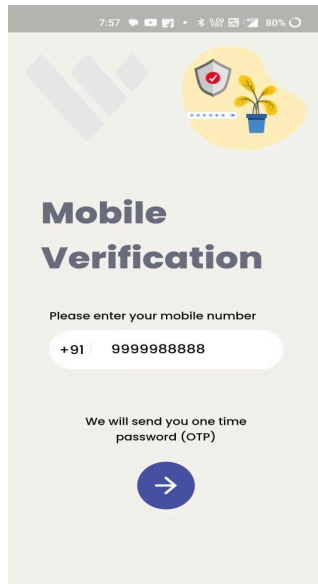

For Android Users

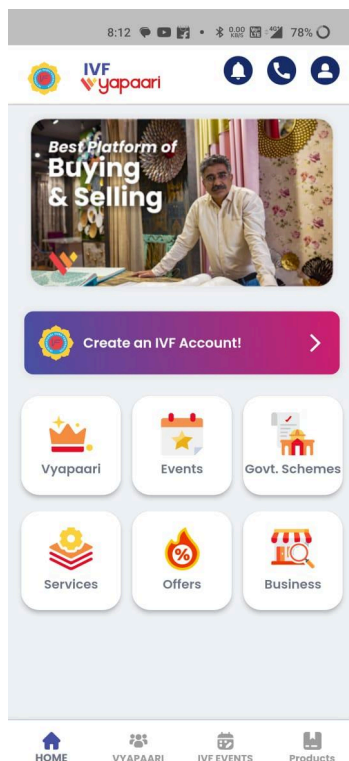

For IOS User

Step 3 - Enter the mobile number and click on the next button. It will redirect you to another sign-up page. Enter first name, last name, valid email address, and OTP(One Time Password). Agree with Terms and Conditions then click on the next button to complete the process.

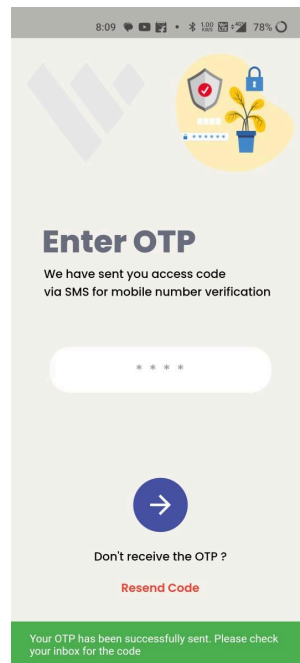

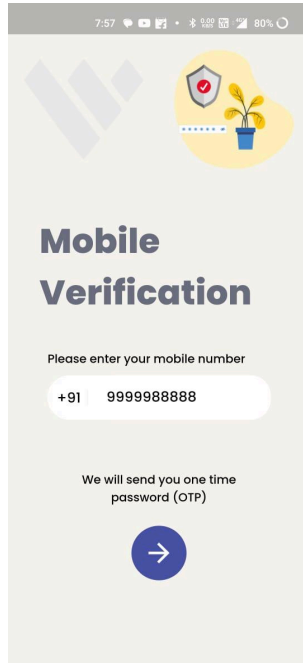

Step 4 - Dashboard will be displayed.

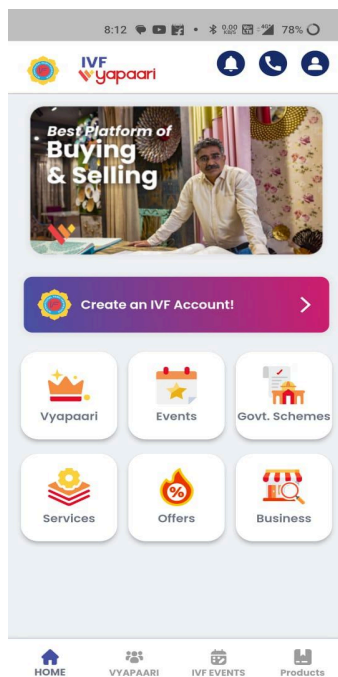

For Existing User:-

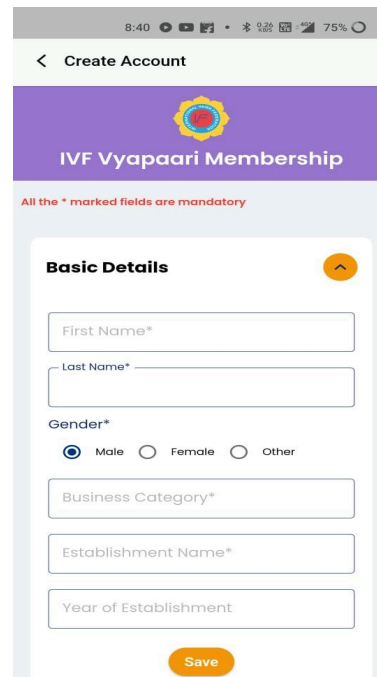

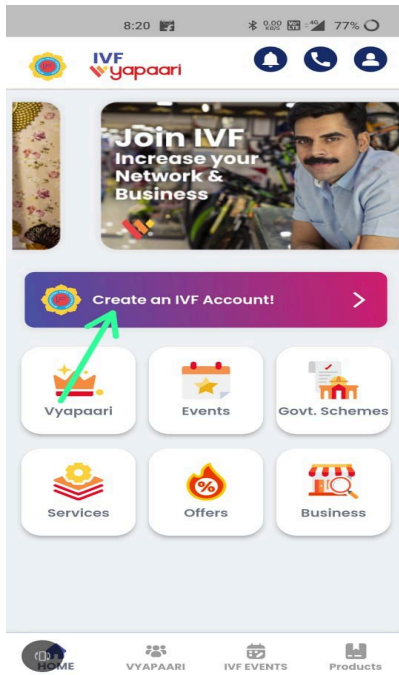

Step 1 - To log in as IVF vyapaari enter the mobile number and enter the otp.

Step 2 - The dashboard will be displayed.

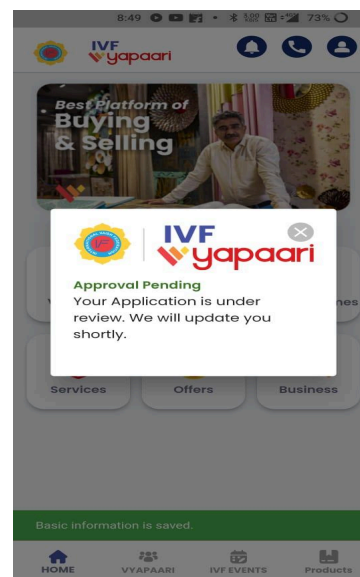

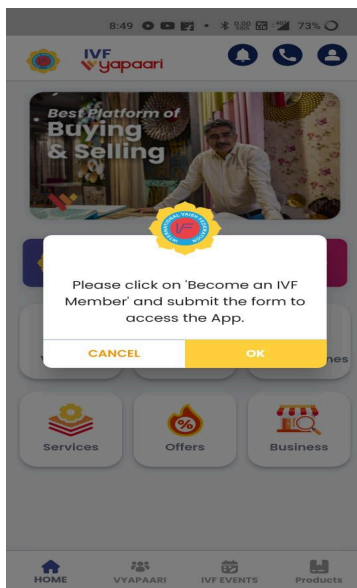

Step - 3 Click on Create an IVF Account a form page will be displayed and enter all the details which are presented there. Once done with filling details click on the save button.

NOTE- The user can only use the application once he becomes an IVF Vyapaari. Once he becomes an IVF vyapaari he can use the application.

A pop-up will come like this if he is not an IVF Vyapaari.

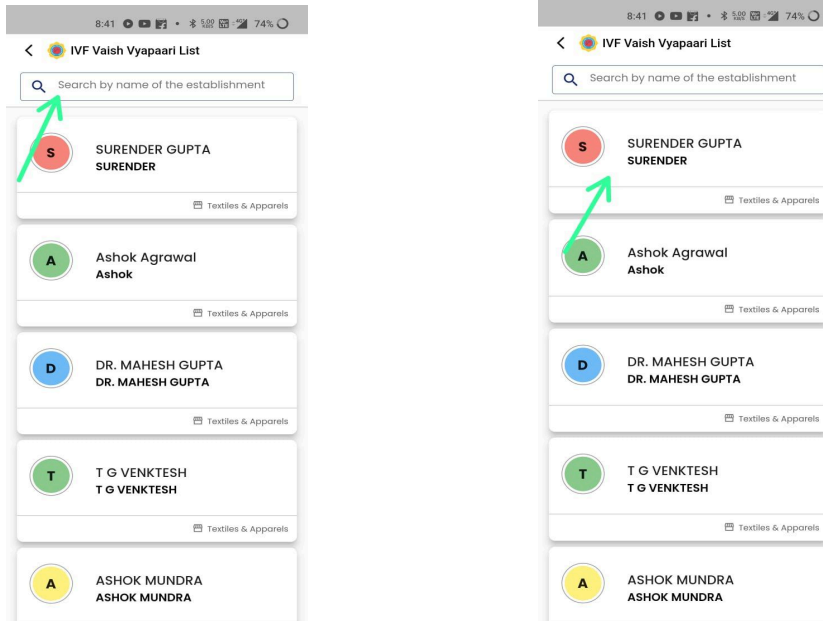

This pop up before a user filled the form.

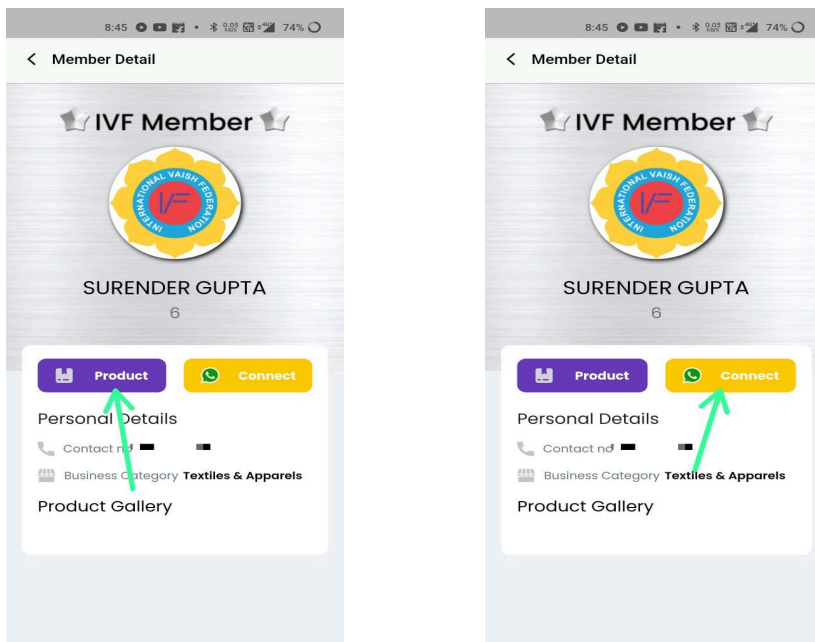

This pop up after a user filled the form.

Vyapaari:-

Step 1 - Click on the Vyapaari tab. On the Vyapaari page, users can search and connect with Vyapaaries.

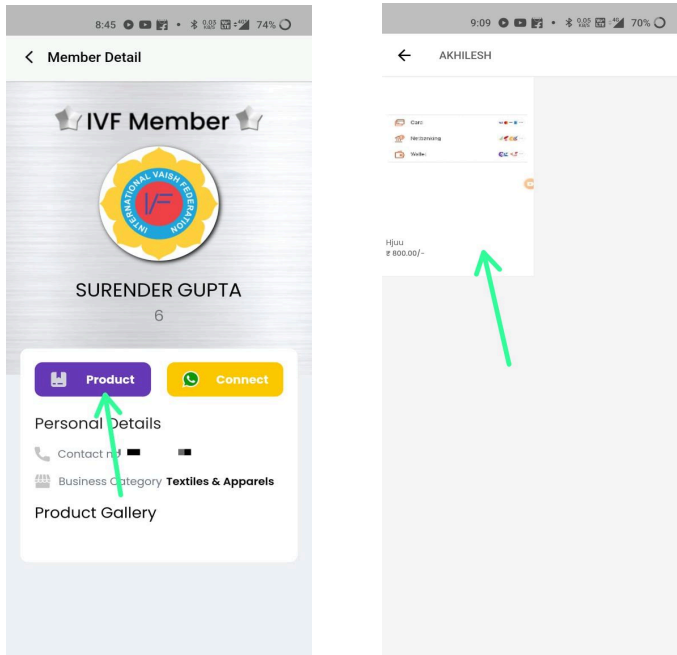

Step 2 - Here users can see the product that is added by Vyapaari and chat with another Vyapaari.

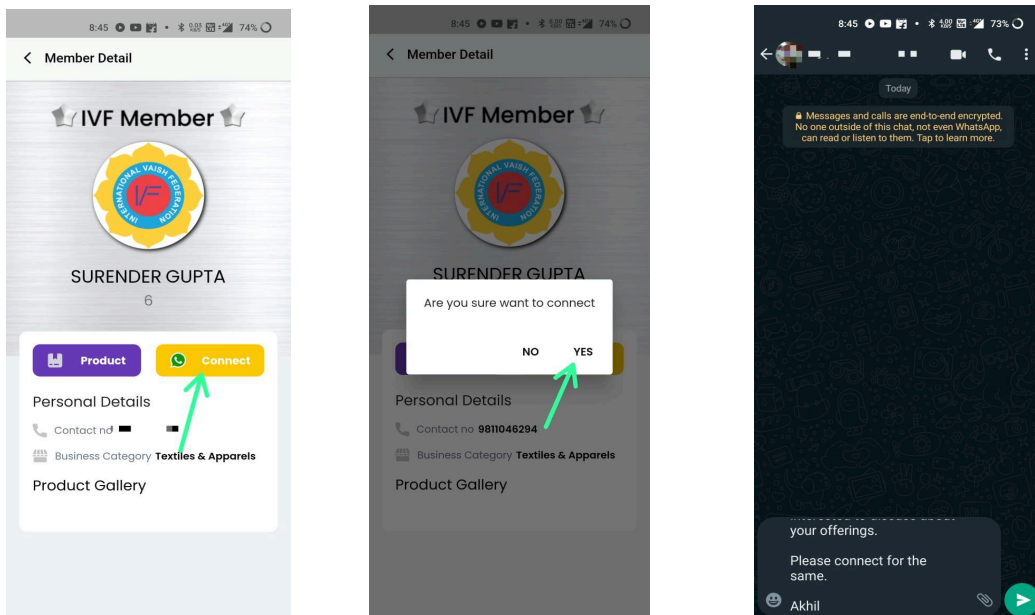

Product:-

Step 1 - Click on Product. Select one of the products which is present in the product section. Here vyapaari can connect with another vyapaari using Enquire.

Connect:-

Step 1 - Click on Connect it will redirect to WhatsApp to connect with the respective vyapaari.

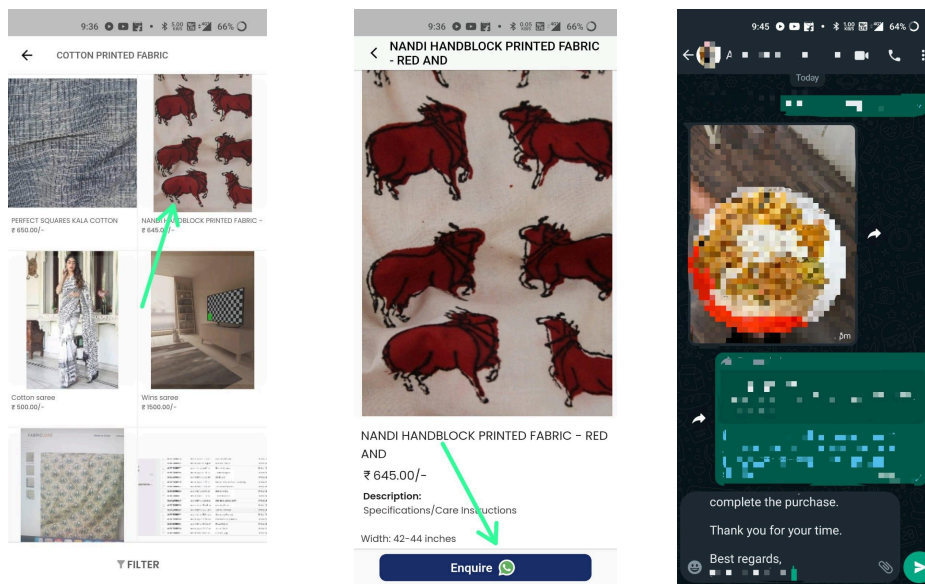

Business :-

Step 1 - Click on Business then select the category and select the sub-category.

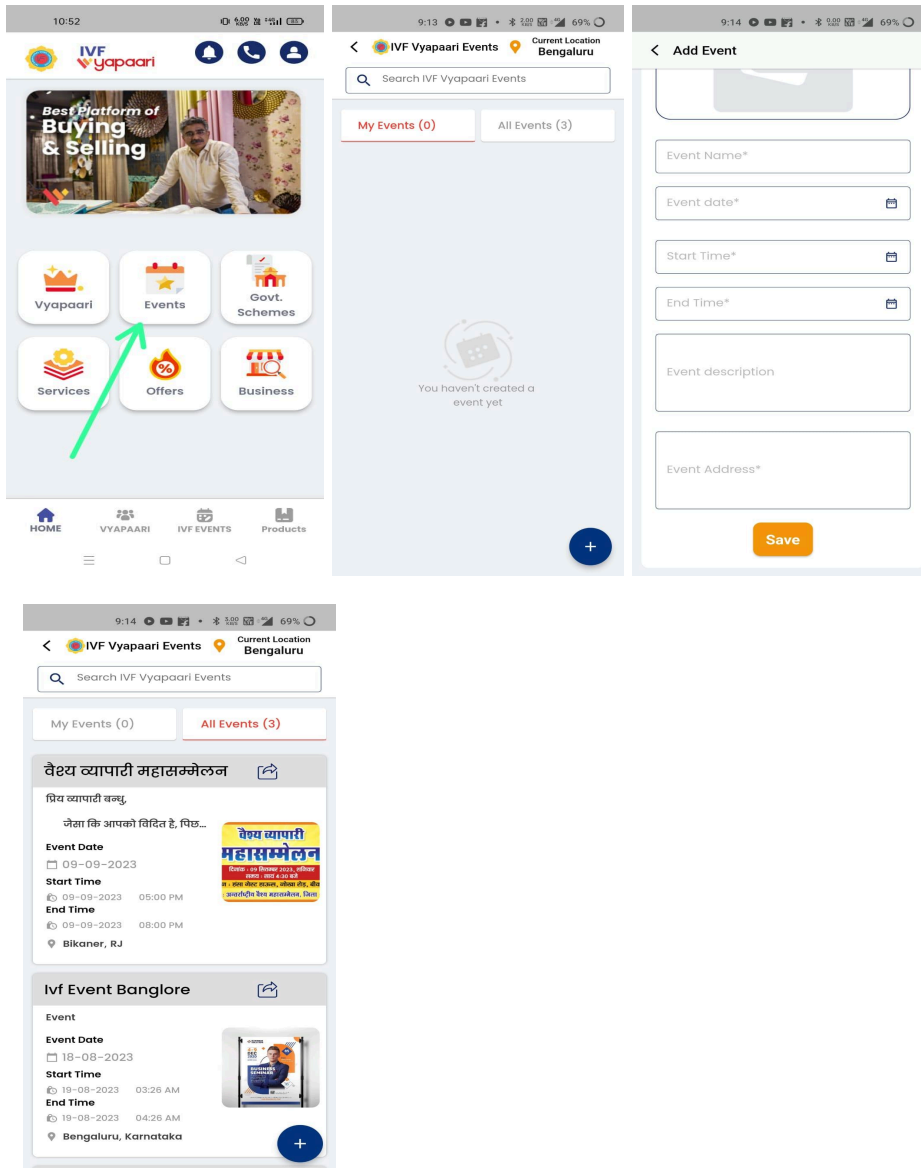

Step 2 - Here product can be filtered, Select the product and click on Enquiry to contact about that product.

Events:

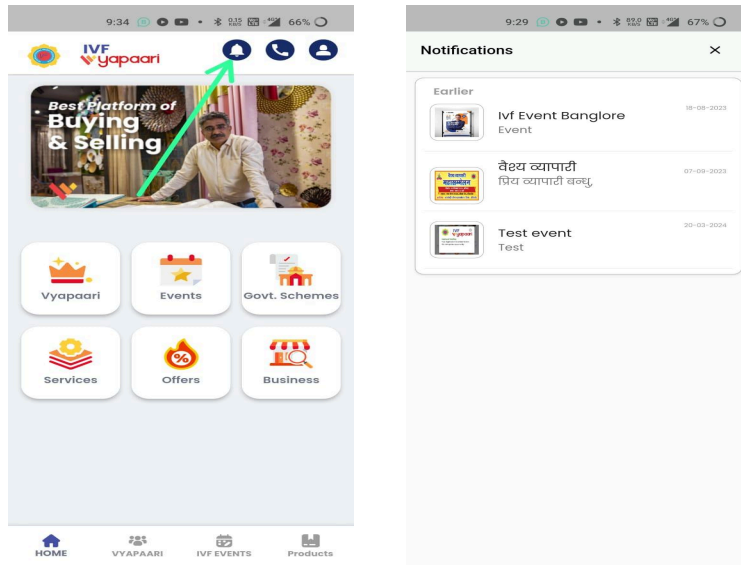

Click on the Event module, a page will look like this. Here the user can add his event by clicking on the add button. Once he clicks on the add button, an event form will appear. Once the user completes the form his event will be added under my event section.

Under All Events, the user can see the events of other members.

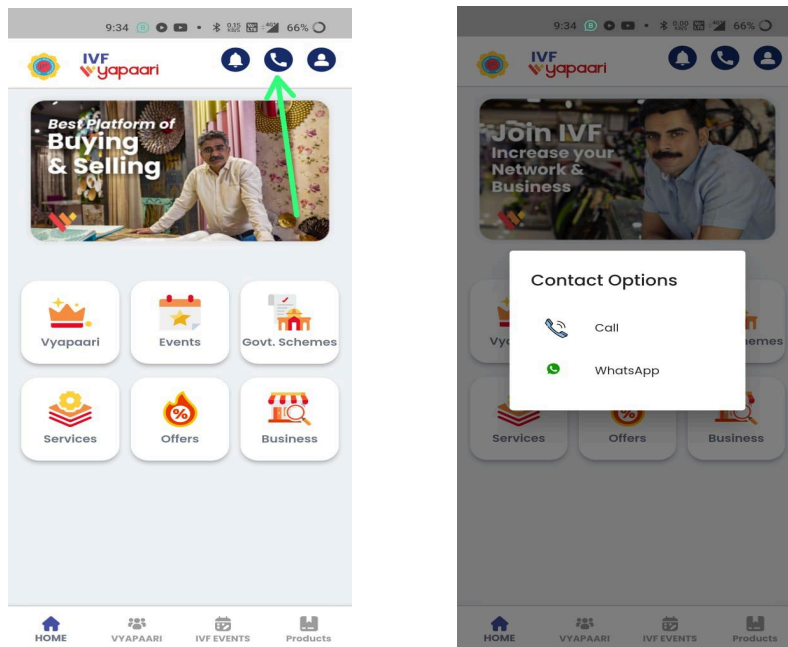

Notifications:

Click on the notification button, and the notification page will display. Here users can see the latest notifications

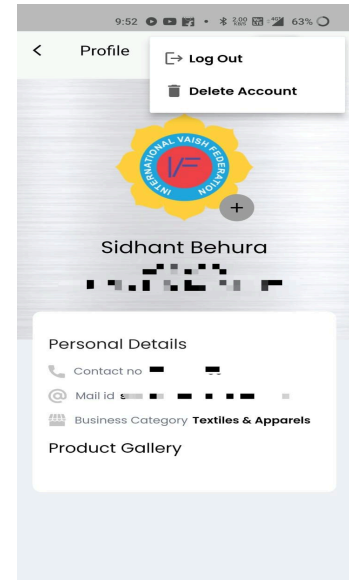

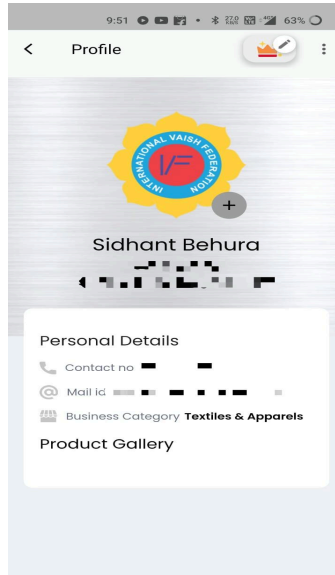

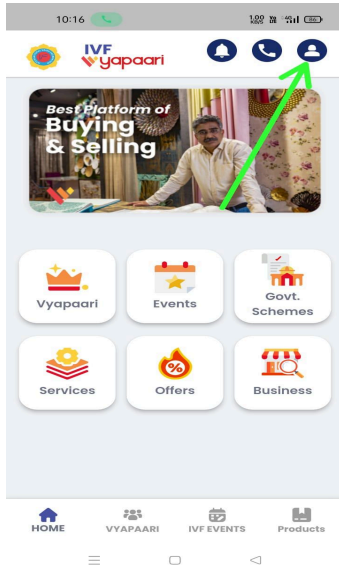

Support:

Click on the call button, and it will ask users for two options to contact the support team both are call and WhatsApp by clicking on the particular option, the user can contact the support team.

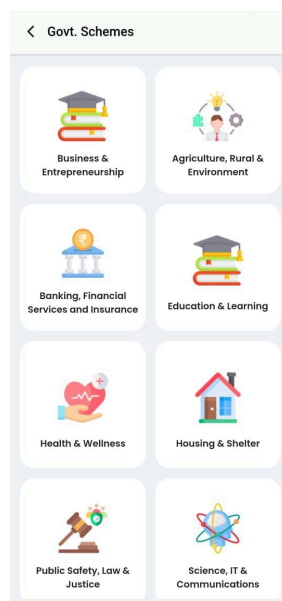

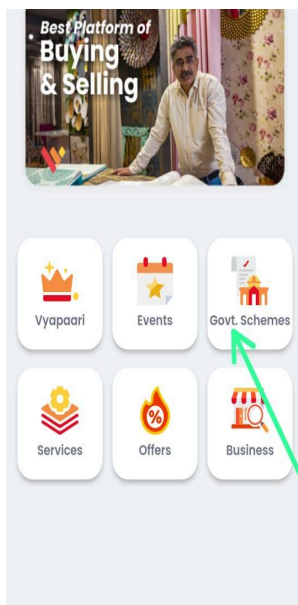

Profile:

Click on the profile button, profile page will be displayed there user can see personal details, an edit option, a product gallery(where the user can see his products), a logout, and a delete button.

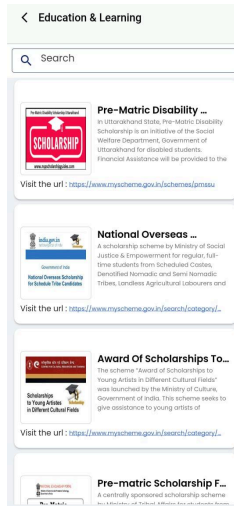

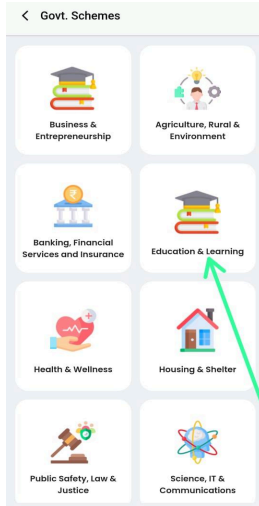

Government Schemes:-

Step 1: In the IVF Vyapaari application, when you click on the "Government Schemes" tab, it displays a list of different fields

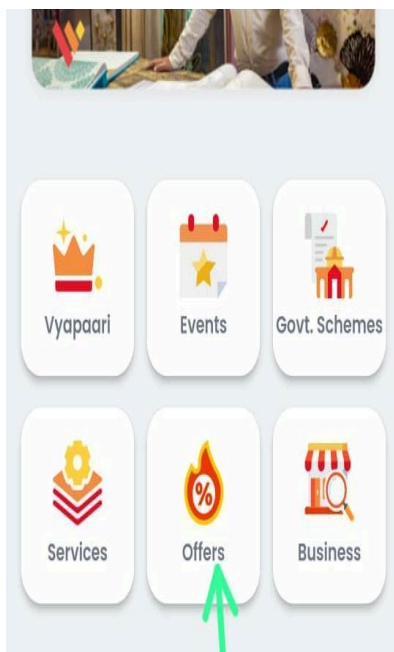

Step 2: Selecting any particular field presents a list of schemes specifically related to that chosen field. This feature allows users to easily access information about various government schemes relevant to their area of interest.

Offers Tab:-

Step 1: In the IVF Vyapaari application, when users click on the "Offers" section, they are presented with a list of available offers.

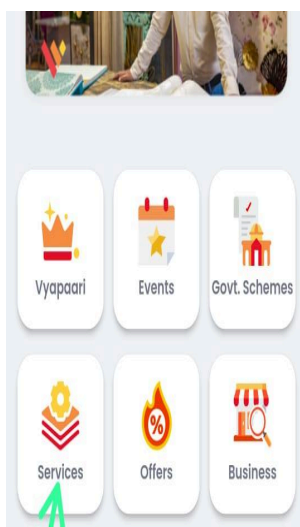

Step 2 : By selecting a particular offer, users can access detailed information about it. This includes understanding the terms, conditions, benefits, and any requirements associated with the offer.

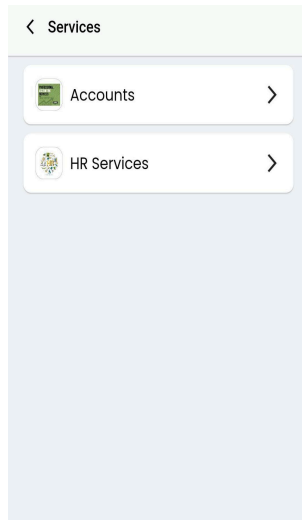

Services Tab:-

Step 1: In the IVF Vyapaari application, clicking on the "Services" tab reveals a selection of available services.

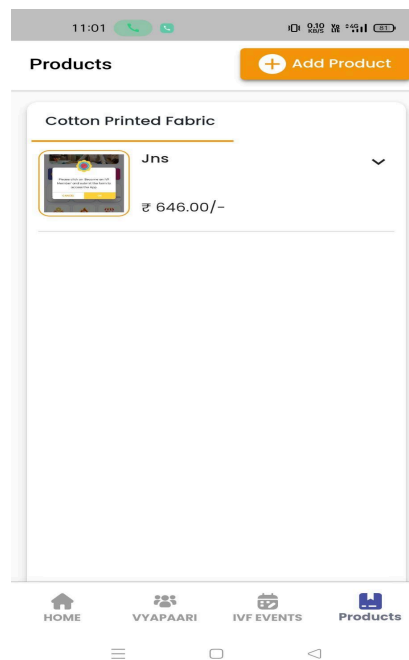

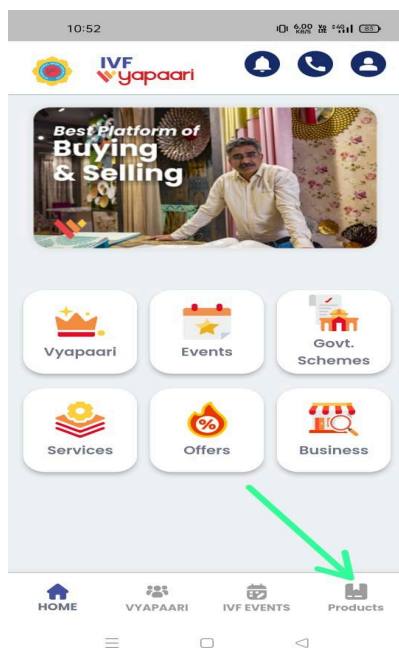

Step 2: Users can explore and utilize these services to support various aspects of their IVF business operations. These services may include assistance with logistics, marketing, financial management, or other essential tasks tailored to meet the needs of IVF entrepreneurs.

Products:

In the IVF Vyapaari application, when users click on the "products" section, it will take them to the products page where user can see and add their products.

Step-1:

In the IVF Vyapaari application, when users click on the “ Add products” button a form page will appear to add their product. Once the user clicks on save, he can see his products under the products section.

